Conversion & Re-use of Rural Buildings as Dwellings Draft Policy (including Proposals Map amendments)

Public Consultation Period: Friday 2nd October to Friday 13th November 2009

The Council has published a new Draft Policy for the Conversion and Re-use of Rural Buildings as Dwellings. Once adopted this policy will be used in assessing planning applications in the District up to 2021 and will replace saved Local Plan Policy 29.

We are now seeking your views on the proposed policy before submitting it to the Government for Independent Examination.

To view the proposed policy and submit your comments you can:

- Visit www.northnorfolk.org/ldf to download the documents or view and make comments online.
- Visit your local North Norfolk library (including the mobile library service).
- Visit North Norfolk District Council offices in Cromer or Fakenham.
